

Mr. Sellman moved to fill the blank with "fifty cents."

The question being taken on the substitute offered by Mr. Nicholas,

It was resolved in the affirmative.

The question then being taken, on agreeing to the second member of Mr. Oldson's motion, as amended by the adoption of said substitute,

It was resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Yoe then moved further to amend the said bill, by striking from the first section thereof, these words "besides the accustomed itinerant charges and ferriages already allowed" in the 7th and 8th lines of the printed bill, and inserting in lieu thereof "and the sum of one dollar for every twenty miles as itinerant charges and the sum of fifty cents for ferriages."

And on the question "Will the House agree to the proposed amendment?"

It was resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Grason then moved that the further consideration of said bill be referred to the first day of June next.

And the question thereon being taken,

It was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Hicks,

The yeas and nays, (being required by seven members,) were ordered and taken.
